Tear up a 50 Euro bill * Object lesson

Object lessons you can use to show how much God loves us.

Object lesson

Take a 50 Euro bill (less will do). Ask the children/teens who wants this bill.
Then make a wad of the 50 bill. Who else wants the bill?
Tear up the 50 bill, and again, and again, and again, and .... At some point not much is left. Does anyone want the bill, or what's left of it? Now the bill has no value!

Things also happen in our lives that crease or tear us apart, but before God we do not lose our value.

Practical information:

What do I do with a damaged bank bill?
The question above is a link to the website of De Nederlandse Bank (DNB). On DNB's site you will find answers to the question.
