The Fried Egg Bread

In this game, participants must ask strangers for an unusual favor. Experiential learning in its purest form!

Materials
One egg per group (3–5 people each)

Gameplay
Each group receives a raw egg. By an agreed-upon time, they must complete the following task:

"Bring the egg back—as a fried egg on a piece of bread."

Of course, it is forbidden to ask a friend or relative for help or to buy bread yourself.

The goal should be for every group to complete the task. Thus, the winner isn't the fastest group, but rather any group that completes the task within the allotted time (which should be set generously).
