Sardine

A game in which one person hides whilst everyone else looks for them.

Age: 6 yearsand over

Number of players: 5 or more

Materials: none required

How to play

The chosen person goes to hide.

The other players cover their eyes and wait for as long as agreed beforehand.

Once the count is over, each player tries, one at a time, to find the person hiding. When they find them, they hide with them in the same spot.

Each subsequent player who finds the hiders hides with them.

The game ends when the last person has found everyone who is hiding.

The person who was the first to find a hider becomes the hider in the next round.
