Gardening on the street

Planting gardens in unexpected places. Discovering that you can influence your own environment. Becoming aware that you are responsible for that same environment.

Taking responsibility

Of course, you're not actually supposed to just do a little work. Therefore, do it only after consulting with neighbors and the municipality. Because you are gardening on the municipality's land, you must consult with the municipality beforehand. Otherwise, this action is a form of civil disobedience.

Making seed bombs

To make your own seed bombs you will need:

- Seed soil
- Clay
- Water
- Flower seeds

Here's how to make them:

- Mix the clay with a little seed soil
- Add water so that the mixture of clay and soil becomes well malleable
- Mix in the flower seeds well
- Roll your mixture into small balls
- Let the balls dry for a few days (CAUTION: do not put them in the sun!)

When they are ready you can throw them on a bare piece of ground or give them as a gift to a lover.
