A paper boat is floated in a bowl of water. The die is rolled and each person must pour, from a full, pre-prepared cup, a specified amount of water (e.g., 6 or 1; or 1, then 2, 3, etc. thimbleful of water) into the boat. Simple at first, but at some point the boat will sink. The unlucky person whose boat sinks has to give the leader a float or a predetermined punishment.
