I see something you don't see!

Game as a time killer on the go.

Material

No material required.

Gameplay

One participant memorizes an object and describes it with an adjective (usually colors)

 $\parallel$

He starts by saying, "I see something you don't see, and it's ..." (e.g. "red")

The other participants try to guess what is being looked for.

 $\parallel$

If someone guesses it, he gets to think of the next object.
