Hare in the bush

This is a fun catching game.

A minimum of 15 people are needed.

Performing

- Three children at a time form a circle (bush).
- A rabbit sits in each bush.
- The different bushes are distributed on the playing field.
- A hare is chased outside the bush by a fox.
- If the fox can touch the hare, the hare becomes a fox.
- The hare can take refuge in a bush. If there is already a hare there, this hare has to leave the bush and is then chased by the fox.

The game becomes even more varied if the hare changes roles with a bush player every time he goes to a bush.
