The long snake

A game where the head of the snake wants to grab the tail

Age	from 8 years
Number of players	10-15
Game location	Beach
Material	None

10 to 15 players stand in columns of one and grab the person in front around the body. The one in front forms the head, the one behind forms the tail of the snake.

The head now tries to grab the tail. The head avoids the tail, and the rest of the snake helps by bending and turning.

If the head man can catch the player by the tail, the previous tail becomes the head and the previous second hindmost becomes the tail.
