The Storm- EPA Afternoon Programme №8

This season, we will look at the story of William Tyndale, who translated the Bible from Hebrew into English. Through this story, we will be able to show children the importance of the Word and that we should be thankful to have it in a language that is accessible to us. We will experience different things that are part of the story.

Our key message for today's topic is "Even if everything is falling apart, I can trust God"

The pocket game can be of your choice.

Introduction

We begin with a welcome, rules and preface and introduce the children to the new topic.

Game

The game can be viewed here https://www.youngstarswiki.org/bg/wiki/art/igra-memori-s-chashi

History

We continue with the story from the chapter "The Storm".

Boat Ride

To tie the story to this activity, we decided to make a swing using ropes, an inflatable boat and a large board so the children could experience a small part of Sarah's experience during the storm.

The treat can be of your choice.

Praise and Share

We continue with praise and sharing. Sharing has a key message "Even if everything is falling apart, I can trust God." The passage used is Luke 8:22-25.
