Accompanying comic characters for a semester with Solomon's sayings

A spiritual concept that is suitable for 9 afternoons. It combines a various comic character with different biblical stories, with different program ideas. Suitable for children from the 3rd grade (youth group age).

GK Comic

Short disclaimer, the main idea was the statement in the center, i.e. when reading through the topics, the connection of the story of the Bible to the comic characters probably becomes apparent

Themes:

Tintin

- 10 plagues/ God condemns ungodly sinners

Spirou and Fantasio

- Elijah flees from Ahab/ God has everything in his hands

Scrooge McDuck

- David is anointed king/ God looks into your heart

Calvin and Hobbes

- Gideon/ We should put our deeds in God's hands

Tick, Trick and Track

- Job/ We should trust in God

Lucky Luke

- Jesus chases vendors out of the temple/God hates evil

Gaston

- Achan disobeys God/ We should do what pleases God

Mickey Mouse

- 4 friends and the paralyzed man / God saves the godly

Marsupilami

- David meets Saul in a cave/ God a refuge/ Castle
