Youth+Sport

Jugend und Sport is an organization in Switzerland that supports Swiss sports and youth clubs in their work.

Areas

Youth and Sport is active in many areas of sport. However, the two most important areas for the Youngstars work are

- Camp sports/trekking (mainly camps)
- Floorball

A complete list of the areas can be found on the Youth and Sport homepage.

Camps

Many Youngstars camps in Switzerland are organized with the help of Youth and Sport. This results in the following advantages:

- Material (e.g. tarpaulins, ropes) can be borrowed practically free of charge (60 Rp/kg)
- Youth and Sport pays a contribution towards expenses for each registered child. (CHF 6 per child per camp day)

However, in order for such a camp to take place, at least one leader with Y+S II recognition (camp leader) and one leader with Y+S I recognition (camp staff) must be present at each camp. There must also be two hours of camp sports and two hours of camp activities or one more hour of camp sports per day.

The exact instructions for the organization of camps under Youth+Sport can be found here.

Only camps that are held in Switzerland can be registered with Y+S.
