I once read a book...

A fun game to get to know each other

Game instructions

The group sits in a circle. One participant starts and says to his neighbor on the left: "I once read a book. Its author was called (here he gives his own name)". The second participant replies: "I don't know it. But yesterday I saw the new movie by (here he gives his own name)". And so the game continues. One has shoes on that have the design of ... the next has brought his bike to the workshop of ... and so on. The participants are motivated to include their own career dreams: So whoever wants to become a nurse says that yesterday they were cared for by a nurse called ... yesterday.
