Who is who?

How well do you know the people of the Bible and in what circumstances and situations they lived? Find out here in a playful way.

Materials

- small pieces of paper with names of biblical characters (e.g. AT: Adam, Eve, Cain, Abel, Noah, Shem, Ham, Japheth, Abraham, Sarah, Isaac, Ishmael etc.)

Implementation

- Each participant draws a piece of paper.
- The task of the participants is now to line up together in the correct chronological order.
- The first person now begins to introduce themselves. What is their relationship to other people in the line? What has this person experienced? What significance does it have?
- If there are more slips of paper than participants, the slips are simply placed on a row of chairs, everyone takes a new slip of paper and the row is continued or completed.
